

72 names of god list

72 names of god list is a concept that originates from Kabbalistic teachings, particularly from Jewish mystical traditions. These names are derived from three verses in the Book of Exodus (Exodus 14:19-21) and are believed to have profound spiritual significance, representing different attributes and powers of the divine. Each name is a combination of three Hebrew letters, and practitioners believe that meditating on these names can bring about transformation, healing, and a deeper connection to the divine.

Historical Context

Origins in Kabbalah

Kabbalah, which means "receiving" in Hebrew, is a mystical interpretation of the Torah that seeks to understand the nature of God and the universe. The 72 names of God are specifically linked to the teachings of the Kabbalists, who saw these names as a means to access divine wisdom and power. The names are often used in meditative practices and prayers, allowing individuals to elevate their consciousness and spiritual awareness.

The Biblical Source

The 72 names are derived from a specific passage in Exodus where the Israelites are fleeing from the Egyptian army. The text describes how God parted the Red Sea, enabling the Israelites to escape. By extracting the letters from the Hebrew text of these verses, Kabbalists have created a list of names that encapsulate the divine attributes displayed during this miraculous event.

Structure of the 72 Names

The Three Verses

The three verses in Exodus that give rise to the names are:

1. Exodus 14:19 - And the angel of God, who went before the camp of Israel, moved and went behind them; and the pillar of cloud went from before them and stood behind them.
2. Exodus 14:20 - And it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel; and it was a cloud and darkness to the one, and it gave light by night to the other; so that the one came not near the other all the night.
3. Exodus 14:21 - And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and the Lord caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and made the sea dry land, and the waters were divided.

Letter Extraction

From these verses, the Kabbalists extract each letter and combine them into groups of three, resulting in 72 distinct names. Each name can be thought of as a key to accessing different aspects of divine energy and spiritual insight.
