Examining Key Themes in AP Art History

Artworks often reflect overarching themes that resonate across different periods and styles. Understanding these themes can provide deeper insights into the motivations behind artistic expression.

2. Sculpture Techniques

- Carving: A subtractive process used in stone sculptures, exemplified by Michelangelo's "David," where material is removed to reveal the form.

- Casting: A method often used in bronze sculptures, where a mold is created to replicate the artist's original model, as seen in works by Alberto Giacometti.

3. Printmaking Techniques

- Woodcut: An early form of printmaking where images are carved into wood blocks, used by artists like Albrecht Dürer.

- Lithography: A method that allows for more detailed and nuanced prints, popularized by artists such as Honoré Daumier.
