

army basic training graduation dates 2022 fort benning

Army basic training graduation dates 2022 Fort Benning mark a significant milestone for soldiers who have completed their initial training and are now ready to move on to their advanced individual training or active duty. Fort Benning, located in Georgia, is one of the U.S. Army's primary training bases. It is renowned for its rigorous basic training programs, which prepare recruits for various roles within the Army. This article will explore the significance of graduation dates, what families can expect, and provide detailed information about the 2022 graduation schedule at Fort Benning.

Understanding Army Basic Training

Army basic training is the first step for soldiers entering the Army. It is designed to transform civilians into soldiers through a structured program that focuses on physical fitness, military skills, discipline, and teamwork.

The Phases of Basic Training

Basic training at Fort Benning consists of several phases:

1. Red Phase: This is the initial phase, lasting approximately three weeks, where recruits are introduced to the military environment. They learn about Army values, customs, and courtesies, along with physical training and marksmanship.
2. White Phase: Lasting about four weeks, this phase focuses on combat training skills. Recruits learn about individual and team tactics and engage in more advanced marksmanship training.
3. Blue Phase: The final phase, lasting approximately four weeks, emphasizes field training exercises and preparing soldiers for their next steps. Recruits will demonstrate their skills in a series of evaluations and exercises.

Graduation Ceremonies at Fort Benning

Graduation ceremonies are a proud moment for recruits and their families. They serve as a formal recognition of the hard work and determination that each soldier has shown throughout their training.

What to Expect at Graduation

Attending a graduation ceremony is a moving experience. Here's what families can anticipate:

- Ceremony Location: Graduations are typically held at the Fort Benning Main Post Chapel or other designated venues on base.
- Duration: The ceremonies usually last about an hour, featuring speeches from commanding officers and the presentation of diplomas to the graduates.
- Family Participation: Families are encouraged to attend. They can take photographs and celebrate with their loved ones after the ceremony.
- Limitations: It's important to note that there may be restrictions on the number of attendees due to space constraints and COVID-19 protocols that were in place during 2022.
