Essential Costume Elements

To create a convincing Arthur Morgan cosplay, focus on the following essential costume elements:

1. Clothing

- Shirt: Start with a button-up shirt in a muted color, preferably in shades of blue or gray. A long-sleeve shirt is ideal.
- Vest: Arthur wears a dark vest over his shirt. Look for a vest that complements the shirt and has a rugged appearance.
- Coat: The long coat is one of Arthur's signature pieces. A brown or dark green coat with a worn look is ideal. You might want to look for something reminiscent of a duster or a cowboy coat.

- Pants: Opt for sturdy trousers in a dark color. They should fit well and complement the rest of the outfit.
- Boots: Choose a pair of rugged cowboy boots or work boots. They should be comfortable enough for walking but maintain an authentic look.

2. Accessories

- Belt and Holster: A western-style belt with a holster for a toy gun is essential to complete the look. The holster should be worn on the hip.
- Bandana: A bandana is a crucial accessory for Arthur. Choose a darker shade, like navy or black, and wear it around your neck or over your mouth.
- Hat: A classic cowboy hat is a must. Look for one that is slightly worn to maintain authenticity.
- Guns: While real firearms are not recommended for cosplay, you can find realistic-looking toy guns that fit Arthur's style. Look for revolvers or pistols that match the game's aesthetics.
- Satchel: Arthur carries a satchel for his supplies. A brown or leather bag can help complete the look.

Hair and Makeup

To transform into Arthur Morgan, you'll need to consider hair and makeup as well.

1. Hair

- Length and Style: Arthur's hair is medium length and often styled back. Depending on your natural hair, you may need to use a wig or hair gel to achieve the desired look.
