Background of A.W. Tozer

Aiden Wilson Tozer, widely known as A.W. Tozer, was born on April 21, 1897, in La Jose, Pennsylvania. He emerged as a prominent evangelical pastor, author, and theologian during the mid-20th century. His pastoral experience, particularly as the pastor of the Southside Alliance Church in Chicago, shaped his theological perspectives and writings.

Tozer did not have formal theological training, but he was an avid reader and a seeker of truth. His deep commitment to prayer and contemplation led him to profound insights about the nature of God and the Christian experience. He wrote over 40 books during his lifetime, with Pursuit of God being one of the most influential.

The Essence of the Pursuit of God

Pursuit of God was originally published in 1948 and has since been reprinted numerous times. This book is not merely an academic treatise; it is a heartfelt manifesto calling Christians to pursue a deeper, more intimate relationship with God. Tozer emphasizes that the quest for God should be a priority for every believer, and he outlines practical steps to facilitate this pursuit.

1. The Need for a Personal Relationship

Tozer argues that Christianity is not merely a set of doctrines or moral codes but a personal relationship with God. He asserts that many believers experience a superficial faith, lacking true intimacy with the Divine. This relationship is built on:

- Desire: Tozer emphasizes that the first step in pursuing God is a genuine desire for Him. This longing should surpass all other desires in life.
- Faith: Trusting in God's character and promises lays the foundation for a deeper relationship.
- Obedience: A willingness to follow God's commandments and leading is crucial for spiritual growth.

2. The Role of Prayer and Worship

Tozer highlights the importance of prayer and worship in the pursuit of God. He views these practices as essential for cultivating a relationship with God.

- Prayer: Tozer believes that prayer is an act of communion with God. He encourages believers to approach prayer not as a ritual but as a conversation with a loving Father. This involves:
 - Listening as much as speaking.
 - Being honest and vulnerable in one's prayers.
- Worship: True worship is an expression of love and reverence for God. Tozer argues that worship should be:
 - Spirit-led, focusing on God's majesty and holiness.
 - An act of surrender, where believers offer their lives as a living sacrifice.
