Blacksmith leveling guide FFXIV is an essential topic for players looking to enhance their crafting skills in Final Fantasy XIV (FFXIV). As one of the key crafting classes in the game, blacksmithing allows players to create weapons and tools essential for adventurers. This guide will provide an in-depth look at how to efficiently level your blacksmith class, including tips, recipes, and strategies to maximize your crafting potential.

Understanding the Blacksmith Class

Blacksmiths in FFXIV specialize in forging metal items, including weapons and various tools. This class falls under the Disciples of the Hand, one of the three main categories of classes in the game. As a blacksmith, you will primarily work with metal ores and ingots, using your skills to create gear for the game's many combat classes.

Why Level a Blacksmith?

Leveling your blacksmith class offers several benefits:

1. Crafting Weapons: Create weapons for your own use or for sale to other players.
2. Material Gathering: Gain valuable materials that can be used for other crafting classes.
3. Market Board Profits: Sell crafted items for gil, contributing to your in-game wealth.
4. Cross-Class Skills: Unlock skills beneficial for other crafting classes.

Getting Started with Blacksmithing

Before diving into leveling, you'll need to make sure you have the basics covered.

Prerequisites

To start leveling blacksmith, you need:

- Character Level: Your character must be at least level 10.
- Quest Completion: Complete the "Blacksmith" class quest given by your Grand Company.
- Gathering Materials: Familiarize yourself with gathering materials such as copper ore and iron ore.

Leveling from 1 to 80

The leveling process for blacksmithing can be broken down into several stages. Here's a comprehensive guide to leveling your blacksmith from level 1 to level 80.

Levels 1-10: Getting Started

At this stage, focus on completing the initial quests and crafting simple items.

- Quests: Complete the introductory blacksmith quests to learn the basics.
- Crafting Items: Focus on creating items like Copper Ingot and Iron Ingot. These are essential for higher-level recipes.

Recipe List:

- Copper Ingot
- Iron Ingot

Levels 11-30: Basic Recipes

Once you reach level 11, you will unlock new recipes. Focus on leveling through crafting useful items for your character and for selling.

- Crafting Focus: Continue crafting Copper and Iron items but introduce new recipes like:
 - Iron Greaves
 - Iron Knuckles

Tips:

- Utilize your Grand Company to gather materials.
- Engage in the market board to sell surplus items.

Levels 31-50: Intermediate Recipes

At this point, you will start unlocking more complex recipes that require additional materials.

- Key Recipes:
 - Steel Ingot
 - Steel Sword
 - Steel Shield

Crafting Strategy:

1. Gather materials: Use mining locations to get steel ores.
2. Focus on HQ Crafting: Aim to create High-Quality (HQ) items for more experience.

Levels 51-70: Advanced Crafting

This phase introduces the need for higher-level materials and recipes.

- Essential Recipes:
- Mythril Ingot
- Mythril Hammer
- Mythril Sword

Crafting Tips:

- Try to gather materials from higher-level zones.
- Participate in FATEs and treasure maps for resource acquisition.

Levels 71-80: Mastering Blacksmithing

In the final stretch of leveling, focus on acquiring the most advanced recipes.

- Crucial Recipes:
- Adamantite Ingot
- Adamantite Sword
- Adamantite Shield

Final Tips:

- Always remember to utilize your daily crafting allowances for bonus experience.
- Join crafting communities and share tips on recipes and materials.

Maximizing Experience Gains

Leveling your blacksmith class efficiently requires strategic planning. Here are some tips to maximize your experience gains:

Daily Crafting and Gathering

- Daily Quests: Participate in daily crafting quests that provide bonus experience.
- Gathering Materials: Spend time each day gathering materials to ensure you have enough supplies for crafting.

Utilizing Crafting Synthesis

- Synthesis: Always aim to craft HQ items, as they provide significantly more experience.
- Crafting Traits: Invest in crafting traits that enhance your synthesis success rate.

Joining a Crafting Community

- FCs and Linkshells: Join a Free Company (FC) or linkshell that focuses on crafting. This allows you to share resources and tips with other players.
- Market Board: Monitor the market board for pricing trends and adjust your crafting focus accordingly.
