Booking and Planning Your Cruise

Planning your cruise can be an exciting yet overwhelming task. Here are some common questions and answers to help you navigate the booking process.

When Is the Best Time to Book a Celebrity Cruise?

The best time to book a Celebrity cruise is typically:

- 6 to 12 months in advance: This allows for the best selection of cabins and pricing.
- Last-Minute Deals: If you're flexible, you can find great deals within 60-90 days of sailing.

What Are the Costs Involved in a Celebrity Cruise?

Costs can vary depending on several factors:

- Cruise Fare: The base price for your cabin, which can fluctuate based on demand and season.
- Gratuities: Typically around $14.50 per person per day, added automatically to your account.
- Specialty Dining: While included dining options are available, specialty restaurants may incur additional fees.
- Excursions: Shore excursions can range from free to several hundred dollars, depending on the activity.

How Can I Prepare for My Cruise?

Preparation is key to a smooth sailing experience:

1. Check Travel Documents: Ensure your passport is valid for at least six months beyond your return date.
2. Pack Wisely: Bring appropriate clothing for the destinations and onboard activities, including formal attire for special dinners.
3. Download the Celebrity App: This app provides useful information about your cruise, including daily schedules and dining reservations.

Health and Safety on Board

Health and safety are paramount for Celebrity Cruises, especially in light of the recent global health crisis.

What Health Protocols Are in Place?

Celebrity Cruises has implemented several health protocols to ensure guest safety:

- Vaccination Requirements: Guests may need to provide proof of vaccination depending on the destination.
- Testing: Pre-cruise COVID-19 testing may be required.
- Enhanced Cleaning: Ships are regularly cleaned and sanitized, with a focus on high-touch areas.

What Should I Do If I Experience Motion Sickness?

If you're prone to motion sickness, consider the following:

- Medication: Over-the-counter medications like Dramamine or prescription options can help.
- Acupressure Bands: These can alleviate symptoms for some travelers.
- Choose Mid-ship Cabins: Cabins located in the middle of the ship tend to experience less motion.
