Murray's dating history includes a number of high-profile relationships, many of which garnered significant media attention. Below are some of the most notable relationships in his life:

1. Sophia Bush

One of the most talked-about relationships in Chad Michael Murray's dating history is his romance with actress Sophia Bush. The two met on the set of "One Tree Hill" and began dating in 2003. Their on-screen chemistry quickly translated into a real-life romance, leading to a whirlwind wedding in April 2005. However, just five months later, the couple announced their separation, and their divorce was finalized in December 2006. The short-lived marriage was marked by public drama, particularly regarding rumors of infidelity on Murray's part.

2. Kenzie Dalton

Following his split from Bush, Chad Michael Murray began dating Kenzie Dalton, a former cheerleader and actress. The couple got engaged in 2006, and their relationship lasted for several years. Despite their seemingly strong bond, Murray and Dalton ended their engagement in 2013. The breakup was amicable, and they remained friends after parting ways. Dalton has often spoken fondly of their time together, noting that they grew as individuals during their relationship.

3. Nicky Whelan

In 2014, Murray was linked to Australian actress Nicky Whelan. The two were spotted together on numerous occasions, sparking rumors of a romantic connection. Their relationship seemed to be a more private affair compared to his previous ones, with both actors maintaining a low profile. However, the romance was short-lived, and they eventually parted ways without much fanfare.

4. Sarah Roemer

Chad Michael Murray's relationship with actress Sarah Roemer came as a surprise to many. The couple began dating in 2014, and their romance blossomed quickly. They were often seen together at various events, showcasing their affection for one another. In 2015, the couple announced that they had tied the knot in a private ceremony. Later that year, they welcomed their first child, a son named Jackson. In 2017, they welcomed their second child, a daughter named to be kept private. Murray has often expressed his love for his family, emphasizing that his role as a husband and father is his most cherished.
