Exam Structure

The DELE B1 Edelsa exam is divided into four main components: reading comprehension, writing, listening comprehension, and speaking. Each section is designed to evaluate different language skills.

Components of the Exam

1. Reading Comprehension:

- Duration: 60 minutes
- This section consists of texts followed by multiple-choice questions. Candidates must demonstrate their ability to understand and interpret written

Spanish.

2. Writing:

- Duration: 60 minutes
- Candidates are required to write two texts. This may include writing a letter, an email, or a short essay on a given topic.

3. Listening Comprehension:

- Duration: 30 minutes
- This part involves listening to audio recordings and answering questions based on the content. The recordings may include conversations, interviews, or announcements.

4. Speaking:

- Duration: 15 minutes
- The speaking section is conducted in pairs or small groups. Candidates must engage in various tasks, such as discussing a topic, describing a picture, or answering questions.

Scoring System

Each component of the exam is scored out of 25 points, with a total of 100 points available. To pass the DELE B1 exam, candidates must achieve a minimum score of 60 points. The breakdown of scoring is as follows:
